In association with the

CHAI ART INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK

Cordially invites you to an exhibit of original artwork and silver antiques from prominent Jewish artists.

Tuesday, February 4 from 4:00 PM to 9:00 PM

This unique collection of art by renowned Jewish artists is on special tour of South Florida and made possible thanks to Mr. Paul Miller, Chairman of the institute and member of Anshei Emuna.

Attending this exhibit will be Zev Markowitz, Executive Director of CHAI Art Institute, and Joy Schonberg, Appraiser and Auctioneer, former head of Christie's Judaica Department.

Among the artists featured will be works by: Chanoch Lieberman, Zalman Kleiman, Samuel Rothbort, Michael Gleizer, Lloyd Bloom, Meer Akselrod and numerous others. Many of the artists represented by CHAI have had their works sold at Sotheby's and Christie's.

CHAI is the primary organization exhibiting and promoting Jewish artists in this country. These paintings provide an enduring link to the history and experience of the Jewish people.

We look forward to your visiting us for this exceptional event. There is no cost to view the exhibit.

If you are interested in acquiring great Jewish art, many of the paintings and artwork will be available for sale.

This November, CHAI artists will be featured in an important exhibition at the Boca Museum of Art

 BOCA Museum of Art
